Amir was born in Jerusalem to a Jewish family and heard about the Messiah while living with a foster family as a high school senior. After seeing the "Jesus" film by Campus Crusade, he accepted Jesus into his heart, and this was the turning point in his life.

Amir joined the Israel Defence Forces in 1990. He served in the IDF Armoured (Tank) Corps and after graduating in 1992, he was stationed in Jericho. Shortly afterward, the peace process began and Jericho was the first city transferred to the Palestinian Authority.
